

Online Class Announcement/Rules

Due to Covid-19 increased severity in our county and with new regulations, we ask that you please wear your face mask while observing class. Until otherwise. (Exceptions still apply) This request may be changed to a drop off and pick up only. Virtual observation of class may be available at this time.

Starting November 30th, 2020 all of our classes will also be live through Zoom. This is to ensure that any enrolled family that wishes to participate but cannot be physically in class due to concern, ailment, or otherwise may still participate in class. These classes will follow the normal class times.

Rules:

- Only enrolled students should be in the frame, and displayed on the camera during the class time, unless another participant is invited for practice or demonstration. Student will be seen and heard by all class mates.
- Please give respectful consideration to the class time by not having noise interruptions or talking to the students while they are in class.
- Student must follow all rules and etiquette as written in the rules and etiquette form.
- There are to be no interruptions, misbehavior, foul or crude language.
- Student must be respectful to instructors and fellow students. They must give their full attention to class just as if they were in a regular class setting at the school, with no distractions.
- Student must be in full uniform, or uniform pants, and RFMA approved t-shirt and belt throughout class.
- Student must stay for entire class and participate in all activities to their best effort, ability, and availability, unless otherwise discussed.

Private class:

- Private class is defined by a class that is outside of Master Reilly's Family Martial Arts, LLC's schedule.
- Private class can be scheduled outside of regular class times.
- In school private class rates are $25 for a half hour, $50 for an hour.
- Virtual private class rates are $15 for half hour, $30 for an hour.
- This rate is per family. Family rates are for immediate family members only. Private class rates are in addition to monthly tuition.
